this discussion guide helps individuals and small groups answer some of life's greatest questions: what makes life worth living, where did I come from, why am I here, what gives my life meaning, where do I find truth. Answers to these questions directly affect how we live and whether our lives will count for something. This book discussion guide is intentionally designed to encourage dialogue between believers and seekers about worldview issues such as wealth and power, individualism and sacrifice, conscience and morality, and postmodernism and truth.

Join others who want to know God better and read His word with the Bible Recap Discussion Guide, specially written to spark meaningful conversations. It follows the same chronological reading plan as the Bible Recap podcast and book, adaptable for a variety of schedules and settings, for example, meeting with a friend or in a small group or Sunday school class. These questions will lead you to a deeper understanding of the Bible's narrative and how God's character is revealed throughout Scripture. Together, you'll find that He's where the joy is. Praise for the Bible Recap: I have grown closer to God in ways I couldn't expect. It has helped me understand the Bible like never before. More than a Bible study, it is a God study.

Early in 2015, I volunteered to lead a reading discussion group at work. The book I chose to read was The Goal by Eliyahu Goldratt. I scoured the internet for a reading and discussion guide appropriate for a weekly group session and could not discover any. I found plenty of synopses and some college syllabi but not any discussion guides, so I decided to create one. This book is the discussion guide I created because The Goal uses the Socratic method: ask, tell, ask. I decided to create the readings in that same method. Each week's reading begins with Alex asking a question of Jonah, then Jonah's response, Alex learning from that answer, and then the next question posed by Alex. The discussion guide is broken into 7 weeks of reading. Each week has questions to be answered by the participants. Some weeks have exercises; for instance, the dice game played on the hike to further illustrate the concepts discussed in the book. It will be helpful if the leader can customize the discussion questions and exercises to the organization.

This book is a series of lesson plans for a guided discussion based on the book Praying in God's Will. It explains how to lead a series of guided
