memories of my town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way as people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic the urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past but it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past in this past some elements take symbolically dense expressions through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns helsinki the capital vyborg the ceded and lost karelian town and jyväskylä a town with dense commercial and cultural dimensions in the middle of finland the aim of the book is to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts the volume memories of my town is an exploration into how town dwellers experience their environment in a complicated way as people in urban milieus relate themselves to the environment this takes place on many levels where especially the time level becomes problematic the urban buildings and settings can be looked upon as a kind of collective history as carriers or witnesses of times past but it is only the town dwellers that experience urban time itself the time they live in but through their memories also times past in this past some elements take symbolically dense expressions through reliving and narrating their experiences the symbolically important factors in the this urban relationship will be outlined for investigations concerning three towns helsinki the capital viborg the ceded and lost carelian town and jyväskylä a town with dense commercial and civilisatory dimensions in the middle of finland the symbolic aspects are the kern in all the articles of the book memories of my town the aim of the book and its articles has been to use different theoretical concepts as guidelines in analysing the different narrative texts thus the articles are to be seen as independent contributions to the scientific discussion about places urbanism memories and narratives the ethnological outlook is on the other hand an outcome of the joint project town dwellers and their places whereby the articles substantially relate to one another thus the book can also be seen as a joint result of this urban project which was sponsored by the finnish academy this volume analyses the societal legacy of lutheranism in finland in broad terms it contributes to the recent renewed interest in the history of religion in finland and the nordic countries by bringing together researchers in history political science economics social psychology education linguistics media studies and theology to examine the mutual relationship between lutheranism and society in finland the two main foci are i the historical effects of the reformation and its aftermath on societal structures and on national identity values linguistic culture education and the economy and ii the adaptation of the church and its theology to changes in the geo political and sociocultural context important sub themes include nationalism and religion the secularization and institutionalization of traditional values multiple protestant ethics and long continuities in history overall the book argues that large changes in societies cannot be explained via secular factors alone such as economic development or urbanization but that factors pertaining to religion provide substantial explanatory power for understanding societal change and the resulting societal structures mythic discourses in the present day show how vernacular heritage continues to function and be valuable through emergent interpretations and revaluations at the same time continuities in mythic images motifs myths and genres reveal the longue durée of mythologies and their transformations the eighteen articles of mythic discourses address the many facets of myth in uralic cultures from the finnish and karelian world creation to nenets shamans offering multidisciplinary perspectives from twenty eastern and western scholars the mythologies of uralic peoples differ so considerably that mythology is approached here in a broad sense including myths proper religious beliefs and associated rituals traditions are addressed individually typologically and in historical perspective the range and breadth of the articles presenting diverse living mythologies their histories and relationships to traditions of other cultures such as germanic and slavic all come together to offer a far richer and more developed perspective on uralic traditions than any one article could do alone in the mid 19th century letters to newspapers in finland began to condemn a practice known as home thievery in which farm mistresses pilfered goods from their farms to sell behind the farm master s back why did farm mistresses engage home thievery and why were writers so harsh in their disapproval of it why did many men in their letters nonetheless sympathize with women s pilfering what opinions did farm daughters express this book explores theoretical concepts of agency and power applied to the 19th century context and takes a closer look at the family patriarch resistance to patriarchal power by farm mistresses and their daughters and the identities of those finnish men who already in the 1850s and 1860s sought to defend the rights of rural farm women
